

CLIOHNET NATIONAL MEETING

Tartu 2-3 May, 2008

PROGRAM

Thursday, 1 May

Arrival in Tartu

Friday, 2 May

First Session

10:00 Opening

Prof. Birute Klaas, Vice Rector of the University of Tartu

Prof. Eero Medijainen (Tartu, Estonia): Cliohnet/Cliohres and Estonia

10:30 Dr. Jean-François Berdah (Toulouse, France): The Nordic Historical Review and regional studies in France

11:00 Dr. Pärtel Piirimäe (Tartu, Estonia): Swedish Empire and its Baltic provinces: legal debates on their mutual relationship

11:30 Coffee break

12:00 Prof. Günther Lottes (Potsdam, Germany): The Baltic and the German Enlightenment. A core region at the periphery.

12:30 Dr. Eva Piirimäe (Tartu, Estonia): The theoretical foundations of Estonian nationalism

13:00 Dr. Iwan D'Aprile (Potsdam, Germany): Enlightened Cultural Relativism. Reform debates in the Baltic during the Late Enlightenment.

13:45 Lunch

Second Session

15:15 Dr. Andres Andresen (Tartu, Estonia): The Role of Religion in the Formation of the Baltic Regional Identity

16:15 Dr. Lea Leppik (Tartu, Estonia): Provincial Reform of Catherine II and the Baltic Common Identity

16:45 Coffee break

19:30 Dinner

Saturday, 3 May

First Session

- 10:15 Dr. Markku Kangaspuro (Helsinki, Finland): Political use of history and constructed identities
- 10:45 Dr. Kari Alenius (Oulu, Finland): The Estonians' separation from Russianism in the early 1920s
- 11:15 Dr. David Smith (Glasgow, UK): Statehood, nationhood and shared territory: constructing new political spaces in the Eastern Baltic during the 1920s and beyond
- 11:45 Coffee break
- 12:15 Dr. Valters Ščerbinskis (Riga, Latvia): Perceptions of Latvians about Nordic community in the late 19th century
- 12:45 Dr. Olaf Mertelsmann (Tartu, Estonia): On the Left Wing: Socialism, Communism, and Internationalism?
- 13:15 Dr. Vahur Made (Tartu, Estonia): Verbal Empires in the Northern Europe
- 14.00 Lunch

Second Session

- 15:30 Open Discussion (all the students and professors from the Institute of History are warmly welcomed to take the floor)
- 19.00 Dinner